The Louisrille Post in speaking of the Ohis Election says: "The defeat of the Democrats in the Buckeyes State can scarcely be construed as a rebnke to the national administration, because it has not exercised itself in the usual way to secure a partisan success; at the same time it is full of suggestion and warning to the President as to the fate that is liable to overtake his party uniess some departure is made from his present tides."

No explanation of Democratic defeat No explanation of Democratic defeat in the Buckeye State is required. Ohio is naturally Republican, and it is only when there is disaffection within that party that the Democracts have been vic-torious. The vigor of Governor Hoadly's campaign had led his friends to believe he would be elected, and this impression became conviction in the latter days of the fight. That he was unsuccessful should not depress Democratic hearts in other State.—[Harrisburg (Pa.) Patriot.

The Cincinnail Price Current of Thursday in speaking of the hog market says: "The number of hogs packed in the West isak week, 145,000, compared with a similar number last year. Total from March 1 to date is 4,175,000, against 3,025,000 a year ago. The movement at various cities since March 1 is as follows; Chicago, 2,175,000: Kansses City, 710,000: Chicago, 2,175,000; Kansas City, 710,000; Milwaukee, 191,000; Cedar Rapids, 164,-000; St. Louis, 163,000; Indianapolis, 161,000; Cieveland, 126,000; Cincinnati.

The New York World says: "The Republicans are just now very sure of carrying New York in November, because they have carried Ohio in October. Have they forgotten that Ohio gave a Republican majority last year in October and that New York was carried by Cleveland in November? Can they recall 1875, when title Republicans carried Ohio in October and the Democrats carried New York in November? And 1876, when after a Republican October majority in Ohio, the Democratic November majority was nearly 33,000? New York does her own thinking."

Says Bill Nye: "Don't attempt to cheat an editor out of a year's subscripclient an elitor out of a year's subscription to his paper, or any other sum. Cheat the minister, cheat the ideotor, cheat anybody and everybody, but if you have any regard for he future consequence, don't foot the editor. You will be up for office some time, or want some public favor for yourself or some of your friends, and when your luck is a 'thing of beauty and Juy forever,' the editor will open up on you and knock your air casale into a cocked hat at the first fire. He'll subdue you, and then you'll cuss your stupidity for a driveling litot, go and hire some mant to knock you down and kick ome man to knock you down and kick stupidity for a driveling diot, go and hire some man to knock you down and kick you for falling."

Sous of our exchanges are already pitlosophizing over the Ohio election and explaining the cause of Houdily's deleat. One of the leading Republican papers has the following:

'First—Hoadily's agency in the pardon of Mullen, the Cheminani police Eleutenant who was convicted of interfering with the election in that city last November, and his written request that the olfedure is reinstated in office, caused the loss of a large number of colored votes which were cast for Hoadily in 188, It will be remembered that Mullen procured the arress of 113 colored Republicans, and caused their detention in prison until after the elections were over in November, 1884.

Second—Hoadily. In his campaign speeches, acus the temperance element a slap in the face, and reshly abandoned filips powerful class when the liquor question had become one of the vital points in the campaign. He denonced local option as sumptuary and unjust, and approved the Republican policy of licensing and veguiating the luquor traffic to such a radical extent as to lose the votes of the temperance Democrans, and thus made good the losses to Republican policy of licensing the defection of Republican prohibitionists to Leonard.

Third—Hist defense and indorsement of the "Coal oil" Legislature, whose corruption and extravagence are a byword in the mouths of all the honest citizens of Ohio, irrespective of party, lost him not less than 5,000 votes."

GONE TO "GLORY."

This is a very low rate and will doubtless, have the effect to increase the use of gas for lighting, and very considerably increase its use for fuel. At this price and with proper stoves, the use for fuel is economical, and will, doubtless, become much more common than heretofore."
